Talbot Fine Art & Specie differentiators

Collaborative underwriting and tailored coverage

Our underwriters work directly with brokers to understand client needs and provide clear, responsive cover tailored to each risk profile.

Technical risk assessment

We apply rigour and judgement upfront, helping brokers reduce potential claims gaps and giving clients confidence their cover is fit for purpose.

Claims excellence

Dedicated London Fine Art & Specie claims specialists are supported by a global network of conservators, appraisers and adjusters, plus AIG's marine claims and risk management expertise.

Partnership-driven value

Our flexible, technical approach gives brokers direct access to leading expertise and helps ensure clients' cover responds when needed.

This marketing material is not intended as an offer or solicitation for insurance and is for informational purposes only. Products and services are written or provided through Talbot Underwriting Ltd, as managing agent of Syndicate 1183 at Lloyd's ("Talbot") or by other subsidiaries or affiliates of AIG. Products or services may not be available in all countries, and coverage is subject to actual policy terms. Non-insurance products and services may be provided by independent third parties. Talbot is listed on the NAIC International Insurers Department Quarterly Listing of Alien Insurers ("IID-listed insurer"). IID-listed insurers are not licensed and generally do not participate in state guaranty funds, and insureds are therefore not protected by such funds. The term AIG refers to American International Group, Inc. property and casualty insurance operations, including related property and casualty business divisions, but not to any specific subsidiary insurance company. Licensed, surplus lines brokers may obtain products and services from Talbot Specialty Insurance Services, Inc. an AIG subsidiary and affiliated coverholder of Talbot.
